You are invited. . .

to attend a painting seminar with Brenda Stewart. The seminar begins on Thursday at 1:00 PM with a time for orientation and preparation. That evening Brenda and Robert host an orientation dinner in their home. You will have the opportunity to see how Brenda uses her paintings in her home and to visit her studio. This is followed by three full days of painting. The seminar notebook will include the daily projects, plus one or two lagniappe projects to be done in the evenings or at home. Seminar projects typically include a variety of subject matter, including portrait studies, florals, fruits, and still life. Some seminars focus on special themes. The seminar projects are always new material, fresh from Brenda's brushes.
